

Second Year German

GERM 002 055

Credits: 1.0 units / 10 hours / NCAA

Course Description

This Second Year German course uses both written and oral communication modes as students become immersed in the cultures of today's German-speaking countries through their investigation of travel, seasonal activities, vacation choices, city and country life, dining and food, traditional customs, history and traditions, communication, and leisure activities. They will build on the written and spoken language abilities learned in First Year German to continue their study of the parts of speech as well as genitive prepositions, demonstrative pronouns, modal auxiliaries, infinitives, the past perfect tense and verbs with coordinating or subordinating conjunctions.

Note: This course is available only online as there are many audio and video files incorporated in the learning. Students will be required to record their own conversations and submit these to their teacher for evaluation as part of their assignments.

Prerequisite: First Year German

Graded Assessments: 7 Teacher Connect Activities; 6 Unit Evaluations; 6 Projects; 3 Proctored Progress Tests

Course Objectives

When you have completed the materials in this course, you should be able to:

1. Communicate in German about everyday topics in both oral and written form using proper grammar and syntax.
2. Recognize and properly use approximately 1,000 German words and expressions.
3. Explore German music, history, art, science, geography, literature and math.
4. Infer meaning of unfamiliar German vocabulary by hearing and/or reading it in context.
5. Understand and interpret written and spoken language in German on a variety of topics.
6. Translate written/spoken language from German to English and from English to German.
7. Engage with German culture by learning proper behaviors in social and business situations, in both written and spoken form.
